ABSTRACT

This report provides information on the number of students who dropped out of Colorado's public schools during the 1990-91 school year. The dropout rate is an annual rate reflecting the percentage of all students in grades 7 through 12 who leave school during the reporting period and are not known to transfer to other schools or a general education development program. In 1990-91, Colorado's dropout rate was 3.6% (9,978 students), which represents a significant decline in dropouts compared to 11,075 dropouts in 1989-90. Approximately one-fifth of the 1989-90 dropouts returned to school the following year. Also given are graduation figures for the class of 1991. The graduation rate was 79.8%, a 4-year rate based on ninth graders from 1987-88. Sixty-seven school districts (38%) had a graduation rate at or above 90%, and 31% of all public high schools in Colorado had a graduation rate of 90% or better. Data are presented in 10 tables. A final section contains questions and answers about Colorado's dropout and graduation rates and the source of information. (SLD)

INTRODUCTION

ANNUAL DROPOUT RATES

This report provides information on the number of students who dropped out of Colorado's public schools during the 1990-91 school year. Schools with grades 7-12 are required to complete an end-of-year report which provides counts of students entering and withdrawing during the 12 month period July 1 through June 30.

The dropout rate is an annual rate reflecting the percentage of all students enrolled in grades 7-12 who leave school during the reporting period and are not known to transfer to other public or private schools or a General Education Development (GED) program.

Colorado's dropout rate for the 1990-91 school year was 3.6 percent. Of the total 276,072 membership base in grades 7-12, 9,978 students dropped out resulting in a rate of 3.6 percent.

There was a significant decline in the total number of students dropping out of grades 7-12 during 1990-91, 9,978 students dropped out, versus 11,075 dropouts during 1989-90.

Of the 11,075 students reported as dropouts during the 1989-90 year, 2,318 were reported as retrievals during the 1990-91 school year. This represents approximately one-fifth (20 percent) of the 1989-90 dropouts returning to school the following year.

GRADUATION RATE FOR CLASS OF 1991

The Colorado graduation rate for the class of 1991 is 78.9 percent and the completer rate is 79.8 percent. Included in this report are districts' results of a four-year (i.e., grades 9-12) graduation rate and a completer rate. In addition, for those districts that have alternative schools, a district graduation rate and completer rate is calculated excluding the alternative school. This comparison enables the reader to evaluate the rates of the regular school program apart from the total district rates.

Sixty-seven school districts, or 38 percent of all Colorado school districts had a graduation rate at or above 90 percent. Thirty-one percent of Colorado's public high schools had a graduation rate of 90 percent or better.

During the fall of 1988 a Task Force comprised of school district and Colorado Department of Education personnel recommended that the graduation rate calculation be based on information reported on the dropout data collection system. The dropout data collection system, implemented in the 1987-88 school year, provides pupil membership and transfer data by grade, school, and district. The 1991 graduation rate is a four-year rate based on students who were 9th graders in 1987-88.

Although the department is able to report graduation rates for the Class of 1991 and for future graduating classes, it is not currently possible to track students who drop out from their graduating class but complete their education several years later. A number of school districts provide adult education programs leading to either a high school diploma or a GED certificate. In 1990, 7,122 persons received a GED through the state's testing program. The average age of test takers was 25.2. Thirty-seven (37.2) percent were 17-19 years of age and 62.8 percent were 20 years or older.

- The Graduation Rate for Class of 1991 is 78.9 percent. This is a decline of 1.1 percentage points from the 1990 graduation rate of 80.0 percent. This decline is a result of the 1990 rate being based on a 3 year rate encompassing grade 10-12. The Class of 1991 graduation rate is based on a 4-year rate. A 3-year recalculation for the Class of 1991 produced an 80.5 percent graduation rate.
- The graduation rate for regular high school programs (excluding alternative) is 81.4 percent.
- Female students (81.2 percent) reflect a higher graduation rate than male students (76.8 percent).
- The completer rate (79.8 percent) includes graduates and students who receive another certificate or designation of high school completion. The completer rate is 0.9 percentage points higher than the graduation rate.

- Districts whose total membership is less than 300 students have the highest average graduation rate, 91.7 percent, of any of the size groupings. Small attendance districts had the highest average graduation rate, 95.8 percent, of all the setting categories.
- The twenty districts whose total membership exceeds 6,000 students account for 74.3 percent of the state's graduates.

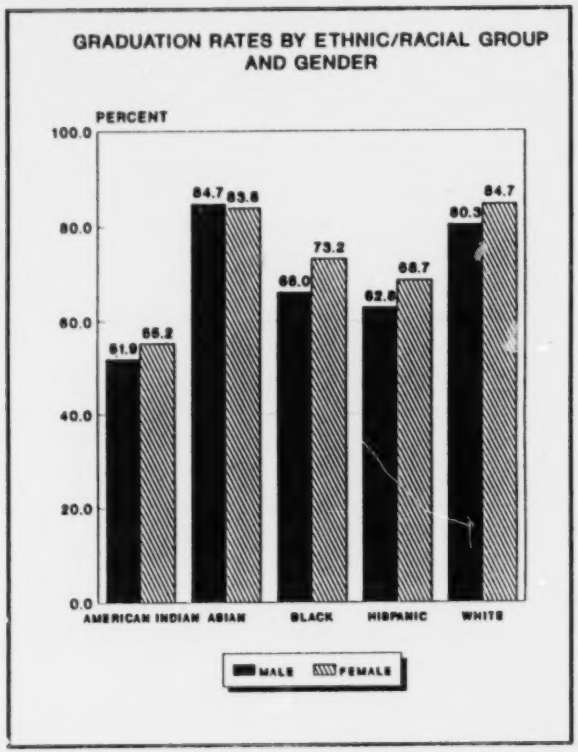
- Asian students have the highest graduation rate with 84.2 percent, followed by White students, 82.4 percent; Black students, 69.7 percent; Hispanic students, 65.7 percent and American Indian students, 53.6 percent.

Figure 2:



- Female graduation rates are higher than male rates for each ethnic/racial group with the exception of Asian students. (Includes Alternative Schools.)

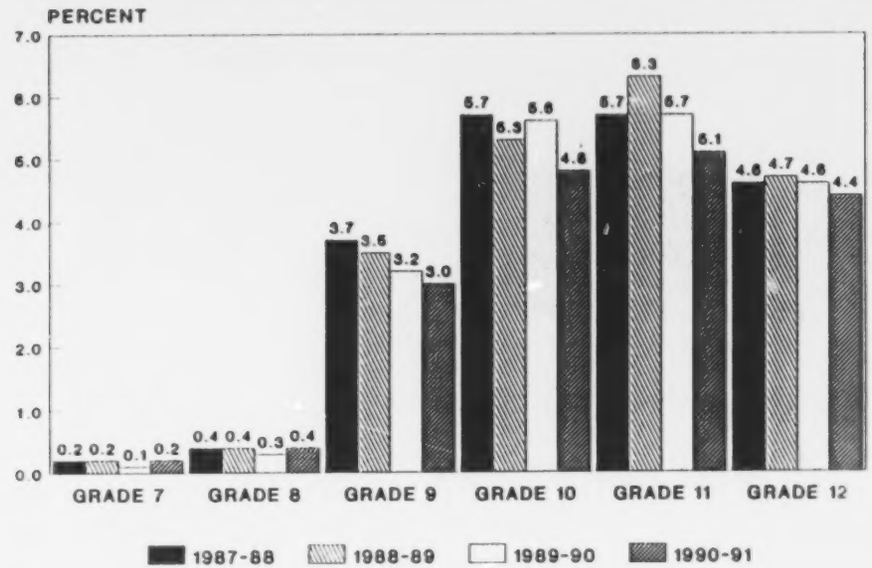
DROPOUT RATES BY GRADE
1987-88, 1988-89, 1989-90 and 1990-91



- A significant decline occurred in the overall 1990-91 dropout rate of 3.6 percent from the 1989-90 rate of 4.1 percent. The dropout rate declined for students in grades 9-12, but increased for grades 7 and 8 after showing a decrease in 1989-90.

- The "Alternative" category (schools/programs for dropouts) shows a steady decline in dropout rates from 31.8 percent in 1987-88 to 24.1 percent in 1990-91, even though the number of students being served in these programs has increased 67 percent during the same period (See Table 3).

- The 1990-91 dropout rate for both male and female students reflect a measurable decline (0.5 and 0.4 percentage points) from the 1989-90 rates (See Table 3).

- In grades 7-12 male students have higher dropout rates in the eleventh grade, while female students, with the exception of 1988-89, have higher dropout rates in the tenth grade (See Table 3).

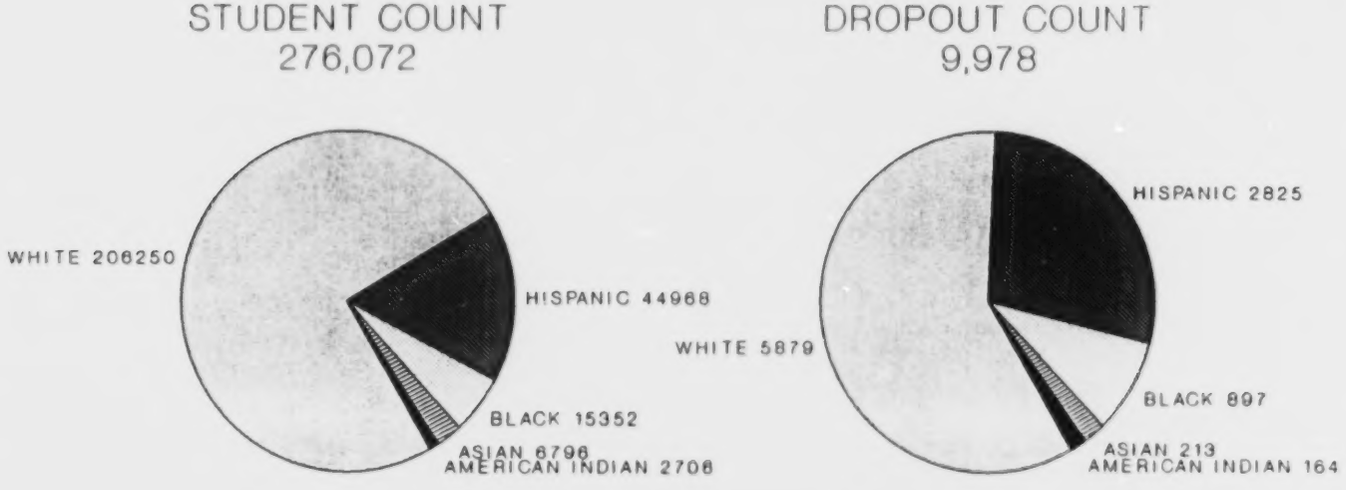
COMPARISON OF STUDENT AND DROPOUT COUNTS BY ETHNIC/RACIAL GROUPS 1990-91



STUDENT COUNT is defined as the total number of students in membership in grades 7-12 during the 1990-91 school year.

DROPOUT COUNT is defined as the total number of students who dropped out from the total student count in grades 7-12 during the 1990-91 school year.

American Indian Students comprise 0.9 percent of the student count and 1.6 percent of the dropouts.

Asian students comprise 2.5 percent of the student count and 2.1 percent of the dropouts.

Black students comprise 5.6 percent of the student count and 9.0 percent of the dropouts.

Hispanic students comprise 16.3 percent of the student count and 28.3 percent of the dropouts.

White students comprise 74.7 percent of the student count and 58.9 percent of the dropouts.

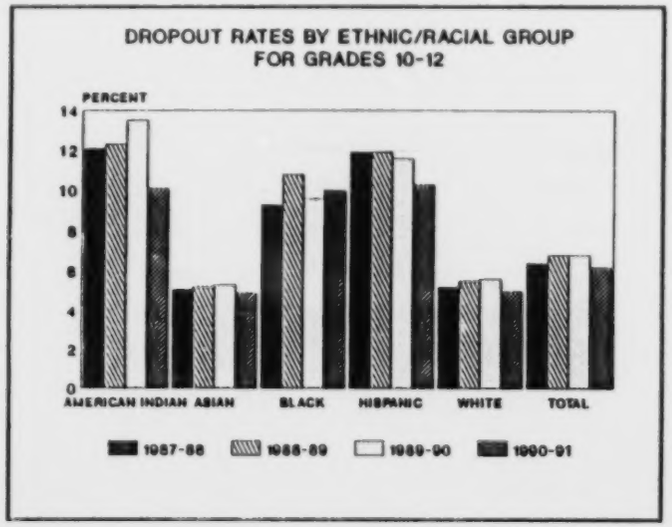
Figure 5:



- Hispanic students in grades 10-12 have shown a continuous decline in dropout rates from 11.9 percent in 1987-88 to 10.3 percent in 1990-91. American Indian, Asian and White students show an increase in their rates during the 1988-89 and 1989-90 school years before declining in 1990-91. The dropout rates for Black students went up in 1988-89, down in 1989-90 and back up in 1990-91.

- The dropout rate reported on Table 5 for grades 10-12 includes data from alternative schools. Therefore the rate is different from the state total rate for grades 10-12 reported on page 17, Table 6 which excludes alternative schools.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT COLORADO DROPOUT RATES

Who Is Considered a Colorado Dropout? By Colorado law, a dropout is a "person who leaves school for any reason, except death, before completion of a high school diploma or its equivalent and who does not transfer to another public or private school or enroll in an approved home study program." A student is not a dropout if he/she transfers to an educational program recognized by the district, completes a G.E.D. or registers in a program leading to a G.E.D., is committed to an institution that maintains educational programs, or is so ill that he/she is unable to participate in a homebound or special therapy program.

Who Is a Transfer? A student is considered a transfer to another district or educational program if the receiving school or program sends for the student's records, or if the sending district can document that the parent or legal guardian has provided information regarding the school or education program into which the student is transferring. This definition of a transfer is in accordance with the Public School Finance Act of 1988, 22-53-207(3).

What If a Student Just Disappears? A student who disappears from school is considered a dropout unless the student transferred to another educational program.

What Is the Dropout Rate? The Colorado dropout rate is an annual rate, reflecting the percentage of all students enrolled in grades 7-12 who leave school during a single school year. It is calculated by dividing the number of dropouts by a membership base which includes all students who were in membership any time during the year.

Can the Dropout Rate Be Multiplied by Four to Find Out How Many Students Drop Out Over the Four Years of High School? No. The dropout rate is an annual rate only. It is not statistically valid to simply multiply the annual rate by four to find out how many students dropped out during high school. The graduation rate, however, provides a measure of how many students completed graduation requirements.

Can a Student Drop Out More Than Once? How Does That Affect the Annual Dropout Rate? Some students have a pattern of dropping out and returning to school several times before they either graduate or drop out and do not return. In the state reporting system, a student is counted as a dropout only once within a given reporting period (i.e., from July 1 through June 30). However, if a student drops out during one school year, then returns to school the following year and drops out again, he/she will be counted in the dropout rate two years in a row.

How Valid Are Colorado's Dropout Rates? The Colorado Department of Education provides definitions, guidelines, and training regarding the proper procedures for identifying and reporting dropout statistics. The data are edited and screened upon receipt and a turnaround document with the calculated rates is returned to the district for verification. In submitting the data to the state, each superintendent signs an assurance that the district has followed the required procedures.

How Are Dropout Data Reported? Dropout data are reported annually to the Department by Colorado school districts. Dropout data are collected for grades 7-12, by school building and by district. Data are reported separately by sex, ethnicity/race, and grade level of students.

How Does Colorado's Dropout Rate Compare to the National Average? Currently, there is no national dropout data collection. The National Center for Education Statistics is in the process of developing a national system expected to be implemented in the 1991-92 school year.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT COLORADO GRADUATION RATES

Who Is a Graduate? In Colorado, local school boards are responsible for establishing the requirements for high school graduation. There is no statewide definition.

Do All Colorado School Districts Have the Same Requirements For Graduation? No. Each local school board defines graduation requirements for their district. These vary from district to district. The State considers a graduate to be any student who has met the graduation requirements of the local school district.

Are There Students Who Complete 12 Years of School and Do Not Graduate? Yes. Some districts award certificates or other designations of high school completion or attendance to students who do not complete the standard high school graduation requirements. Also, some students who do not complete the regular high school graduation requirements do successfully achieve a general equivalency certificate (GED).

Who Will Be Included In the Calculation of Graduation Rate? Two types of rates are calculated by the Department for school districts and for the state: Graduation Rates and Completer Rates.

> Graduation Rates. Graduation rates are calculated based on high school graduates only. A graduate is a student who completed locally-defined requirements for graduation. If a student is not considered a graduate by the local board of education, then he/she is not be included in the graduation rate calculation.
>
> Completer Rates. Completer rates are calculated based on all students who are graduates, plus those who are not considered graduates but receive another certificate or designation of high school completion.

What Happens to Students Who Graduate In the Summer? Summer graduates are included in the graduation rate calculation of the current graduating class or included in the following year's graduation rate calculation based on district's reporting practice.

What Happens If a Student Was Reported as a Dropout at Some Point During His or Her High School Years and the School Subsequently Receives Information that the Student Transferred Into Another Educational Program? Does That Student Affect the Graduation Rate For the Class of Which He/She Was Originally a Member? No. If the high school has documentation of the student's transfer into another educational program or completion of an educational program, then an adjustment may be made to the membership base used to calculate the graduation rate. These students are not reported as completers from the district, they are taken out of the membership base of the school and treated as if they transferred from the school. However, the dropout rate for the year in which they were reported as a dropout remains unchanged.

What Is the Graduation Rate? The graduation rate is a cumulative or longitudinal rate which calculates the number of students who actually graduate as a percent of those who were in membership and could have graduated over a four-year period (i.e., from Grades 9-12).

A graduation rate will be reported for each particular graduating class (i.e., the Class of 1991). The rate is calculated by dividing the number of graduates by the membership base. The membership base is derived from the end-of-year count of eighth graders four years earlier (i.e., in the spring of 1987), and adjusting that figure for the number of students who have transferred into or out of the district during the years covering grades 9 through 12.

What Is the Completer Rate? The Completer Rate is also a cumulative or longitudinal rate which calculates the number of students who graduate, receive certificates or other designations of high school completion. It is also calculated as a percent of those who were in membership and could have graduated or completed over a four-year period (i.e., from Grades 9-12).

Information needed to calculate graduation and completer rates is available from the dropout data collection system initiated in the 1987-88 school year.

What Is Meant By the "Class of 1991"? Graduation rates and completer rates will be reported for a particular class. The Class of 1991 will include students who graduated in the spring of 1991 and during the summer of 1991. It may include students who completed high school in three years, four years or longer.

How Will Districts Be Trained to Calculate Graduation Rates? The calculation of graduation and completer rates requires no new data collection. However, additional calculations of existing data are required. Instructions for performing these calculations are included in the revised Colorado Model Student Accounting System for Reporting Dropouts and Measuring Graduation Rates, which was disseminated with the data collection instruments.

How Do Colorado Graduation Rates Compare to National Rates? The U.S. Department of Education defines graduation rate as the number of graduates as a percent of the number of ninth graders four years earlier. This rate is calculated for all states. To adjust for mobility, the U.S. Department uses unpublished Census data concerning population mobility from 1980 to 1983. We cannot make a similar adjustment because similar data are not available by school district or school. In addition, because Colorado mobility has changed dramatically during the 1980's, their adjustment is really no longer appropriate for Colorado, and artificially lowers our rate in comparison to other states. The procedures the Colorado Department of Education will use to calculate graduation rates will provide a much more accurate picture of high school graduation than is currently provided by the U.S. Department of Education. They will not be comparable, however, to rates calculated at the national level.

SOURCE OF INFORMATION

Data published in this report were obtained from all Colorado public schools having any grades 7-12 on CDE Form 2, End of Year Pupil Membership, Dropouts and Graduates Report. Data collected on these forms were then summarized for reporting in the various formats.

Data for alternative schools in some tables are reported separately. This provides additional information for those districts' schools that are established to give students who are dropouts or potential dropouts an alternative to the regular program. The alternative schools data also includes those Second Chance Programs operated by districts and Boards of Cooperative Services. However, it does not include any educational programs for dropouts that are incorporated as part of the regular high school program.
